

Message from Peter Tshiguvho Chief Executive Officer

For the past 125 years; from our humble beginnings as African Homes Trust in 1898 to growing beyond our first branch in Paarl, to becoming a household brand, our roots are firmly planted in South Africa's soil.

We are proud of our rich history and heritage; and invite you to explore some of the milestones that have shaped us over the years. These moments capture the power of our togetherness and truly illustrate what we've weathered through, and what we can achieve when we are united as a collective.

As we celebrate this momentous occasion, we also recognise the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead.

Over the years, our services have evolved from capturing claims with pen and paper, to now enabling you to submit a claim online or via WhatsApp. From an expert financial adviser workforce that travelled long distances to reach the people, to multiple points of presence nationwide and varied channels for communication built for convenience, our journey has grown from strength to strength with the trust many South African communities have placed on us.

Our omnichannel capabilities have advanced to allow you to engage with us in real life or online, while still providing a world-class, award-winning service.

The world is changing faster than ever before, and we must remain agile and innovative to stay ahead of the curve.

Metropolitan to one, to many. As we look ahead to the next 125+ years, we're excited about the opportunities that lie ahead. We remain committed to being part of our country's success story and making a positive difference in the lives of our clients, our communities and the promise to be there for every step of your financial journey.

Thank you for being part of our journey. We look forward to a future of partnership and success.
